HWC 308: World Literature II

This course surveys world literature from the early modern period through the 18th century with emphasis on literary works in historical and cultural contexts. We will cover a variety of national literatures and work with different genres including poetry, tragedy, comedy, satire, and fiction. And, we will use selected films, music, and works of art to complement our study of literary texts.

Satisfies:
Goal 3 Arts and Humanities (GE3H), Humanities (H), Literature & the Arts PC (HL)

Who: Professor Antha Cotten-Spreckelmeyer
When: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 11:00-11:50 AM
Where: Bailey 301
Class #: 23839