

American Indians Since 1865

HUM 350/HIST 352/ISP 350

Dr. Devon Mihesuah

This course examines American Indian/White relations from reconstruction to the present.

It surveys the impact of westward expansion and cultural changes brought about by the Civil War, forced education, intermarriage, the Dawes Act, the New Deal, the World Wars, termination, relocation and stereotypical literature and movies.

ANNA MAE PICTOU AQUASH
INDIGENOUS WARRIOR
1945-1975

R.I.S.E.: Radical Indigenous Survivance & Empowerment

The class also addresses the Red Power and AIM movements, as well as indigenous efforts to decolonize and to recover and retain indigenous knowledge.

---

Satisfies KU Core Goal 4.1

Fall 2021 Online Course

Mihesuah and Quannah Parker